

Applied Homogeneous Catalysis with Organometallic Compounds

A Comprehensive Handbook in Four Volumes, 3rd Edition

Boy Cornils, Hofheim, Germany

Wolfgang A. Herrmann, Technical University Munich, Garching, Germany

Matthias Beller, Leibniz Institute for Catalysis, University of Rostock, Germany

Rocco Paciello, BASF AG, Ludwigshafen, Germany

Now in four volumes! The third edition of this renowned handbook presents everything about the important topic of applied homogeneous catalysis. Fully updated with a range of brand new topics this is certainly a “must read” for everyone in industry and academia.

- Fully updated and enlarged. New topics like Catalysis for Energy and Alternative Feedstocks are included
- Every topic is included: From Hydroformylation to Carbonylation, from aqueous-phase reactions to cross-coupling reactions and many more
- All four editors from academia and industry stand for extraordinary high quality work
- A plethora of international authors, including Nobel Prize Winner R. Noyori, guarantees top contributions
