

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

4-VOLUME SET

Edited by Stewart Goetz and Charles Taliaferro

Humanities | Philosophy | Philosophy of Religion

An unprecedented multi-volume reference work on philosophy of religion, providing authoritative coverage of all significant concepts, figures, and movements

Unmatched in scope and depth, The Encyclopedia of Philosophy of Religion provides readers with a well-balanced understanding of philosophical thought about the nature of Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, and other religious traditions around the globe. Spanning across four comprehensive volumes and organized alphabetically, this groundbreaking resource contains hundreds of specially commissioned entries covering the key themes, thinkers, works, and ideas in the field.

- Provides balanced coverage of Abrahamic religions as well as different traditions from Asia, Africa, and other geographic regions
- Presents more than 450 entries which have been carefully reviewed by an editorial advisory board of world-renowned scholars
- Explores topics in various historical contexts, such as Jewish and Islamic contributions to medieval philosophy
- Discusses recent developments and new approaches to the study of philosophy of religion
- Examines significant theories and concepts including free will, atonement, moral argument, natural law, process theology, evolutionary theory, and theism
- Offers a fully cross-referenced and searchable online edition

The first work of its kind, The Encyclopedia of Philosophy of Religion is an indispensable resource for scholars and advanced students in philosophy, theology, religious studies, and relevant areas of humanities and sciences at both secular universities and theological colleges and seminaries.

ABOUT THE EDITORS-IN-CHIEF

Stewart Goetz is the Ross Frederick Wicks Distinguished Professor in Philosophy and Religion at Ursinus College and visiting scholar at St. Peter's College, Oxford. He has written extensively on the freedom of choice, the nature of the self, and the meaning of life.

Charles Taliaferro holds the Oscar and Gertrude Boe Distinguished Chair and is Professor of Philosophy at St. Olaf College. He is the Editor-in-Chief of Open Theology, and is on the editorial board of Philosophy Compass, Sophia, and Religious Studies Review.
