The Sistine Chapel

History of a Masterpiece

Antonio Forcellino & Lucinda Byatt

The Sistine Chapel is one of the world's most magnificent buildings, and the frescos that decorate its ceiling and walls are a testimony to the creative genius of the Renaissance. Two generations of artists worked over the course of several decades in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries to produce this extraordinary achievement of Western civilization. In this book, an art historian and restorer tells the remarkable story of the Sistine Chapel, bringing his unique combination of knowledge and skills to bear on the conditions that led to its creation.

GENERAL & INTRODUCTORY CHILDREN'S

Speed Learning for Kids, 2nd Edition

Bill Handley

Kids who succeed at school aren't necessarily smarter than other kids. Often, they're simply better at learning. Speed Learning for Kids helps parents teach their child how to thrive at school by learning more in less time with less effort. The brain-training techniques in this book will enable kids to not just learn faster, but enjoy their learning, memorise as they go, and absorb as much in ten minutes as they normally would in two hours of study.

Cognitive Flexibility

The Cornerstone of Learning

Evelyn Clement

Cognitive flexibility is the cornerstone of learning and enables us to cope with a constantly changing environment. By adapting our knowledge and habits in order to respond to new situations, cognitive flexibility plays a fundamental role in learning. This book proposes a study of the fundamental notions of cognitive flexibility: its measurement and development, its links with metacognition and critical thinking and the role of context in its expression.

Objects to Learn about and Objects for Learning 1

Which Teaching Practices for Which Issues? (Volume 10)

Joel Bisault et al.

Resulting from a conference that took place in Amiens, France, in June 2019, this book examines the place and role of objects centered in teaching practices from kindergarten to university, both in the context of France and elsewhere. These “objects for learning” are considered in their physicality as productions, work or signs that are used for learning. The first of two volumes introduces the questions addressed and investigates the relationship between objects and languages, looking at objects at the heart of early learning.

The Commodification Gap

Gentrification and Public Policy in London, Berlin and St. Petersburg

Matthias Bernt

The Commodification Gap is an insightful institutionalist perspective on the field of gentrification studies. It is based on the empirical study of the relationship between the operation of gentrification and the institutions underpinning – but also influencing and restricting – it in three neighborhoods in London, Berlin and St. Petersburg. Matthias Bernt demonstrates how different institutional arrangements have resulted in the facilitation, deceleration or alteration of gentrification across time and place.

COMPARATIVE & WORLD LITERATURE

Literature

A World History, 4 Volumes Set

David Damrosch et al.

Literature encompasses all of the world's major literary traditions, emphasizing the interrelation of local and then national cultures. Rather than seeing the world's literatures in terms of some singular one-world literary system, this global history instead takes into account the specificity of regional and local cultures throughout much of literary history. Editor Zhang Longxi is Chair Professor of Comparative Literature and Translation at the City University of Hong Kong.

ENGLISH LITERATURE

Shakespeare's Theatre

A History

Richard Dutton

Shakespeare's Theatre examines the theatre spaces used by William Shakespeare, and explores these spaces in relation to the social and political framework of the Elizabethan era. The text journeys from the performing spaces of the provincial inns, guild halls and houses of the gentry of the Bards early career, to the purpose-built outdoor playhouses of London, including the Globe, the Theatre, and the Curtain, and the royal courts of Elizabeth and James I.

LITERARY & CULTURAL THEORY

From Ashes to Text

Andean Literature of Sexual Dissidence in the 20th Century

Diego Falconi Travez

A cutting-edge work at the intersection of queer studies and decolonial studies. Winner of the prestigious Casa de las Américas prize, the book was praised by the jury for the paradoxical and provocative way that it struggles against the abyss of past destruction and reflects on the contribution of the Global South to the often uniformist thinking around the body and its intersections.

Non-things

Upheaval in the Lifeworld

Byung-Chul Han

A leading cultural theorist examines the price we are paying for our growing preoccupation with information and communication. Today we search for more information without gaining any real knowledge. We communicate constantly without participating in a community. We accumulate friends and followers without encountering other people. Information develops a form of life that has no stability or duration.

GENERAL PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy of Zen Buddhism

Byung-Chul Han

In this short book, Byung-Chul Han seeks to unfold the philosophical force inherent in Zen Buddhism. Han does this comparatively by confronting and contrasting the insights of Zen Buddhism with the philosophies of Plato, Leibniz, Fichte, Hegel, Schopenhauer, Nietzsche, Kierkegaard, Heidegger and others, showing that Zen Buddhism and Western philosophy have very different ways of understanding religion, subjectivity, emptiness, friendliness and death.

Rekindling Life

A Common Front

Baptiste Morizot

A leading philosopher and environmentalist shows how small actions can make a big difference in the struggle to avert an environmental catastrophe. Drawing lessons from conservationist initiatives aimed at allowing the natural forces of forests to take over again through a process of free evolution and from agro-ecological farming initiatives which make lands hospitable for wildlife, Baptiste Morizot shows how specific actions can release the prodigality of life, its jungle-like power to regenerate itself.

Child Psychology

Developments in Knowledge and Theoretical Models (Volume 3)

Jean-Pascal Assailly

This book reviews the current state of knowledge in the field of child and adolescent psychology. It distinguishes between what is new in child psychology, given that certain phenomena did not previously exist in a significant way in the lives of young people (such as homoparentality, cyber-bullying or Covid-19). It also examines new studies of subjects that already exist (intelligence, the mother-child relationship, etc.), but where significant theoretical developments have taken place in the contemporary period.

SOCIAL IDENTITY

Community

Seeking Safety in an Insecure World

Craig Calhoun

'Community' is one of those words that feels good: it is good 'to have a community', 'to be in a community'. 'Community' conveys the image of a warm and comfortable place, a place where one can relax and feel safe. Community promises security but seems to deprive us of freedom, of the right to be ourselves. Security and freedom are two equally precious and coveted values which could be balanced to some degree, but hardly ever fully reconciled.

SOCIAL IDENTITY

The Myth of the Wrong Body

Miquel Missé

A bold critique of the idea that trans people are born in the wrong body. Drawing on his own personal experience, Missé makes the case for a different way of thinking about trans embodiment which focuses on gender identity. By critically interrogating the rigidity of gender norms of the masculine man and the feminine woman as the only two models available, Missé opens up a different way of thinking about being trans, beyond the essentialism of the medical paradigm.

SOCIAL THEORY

Post Society

Carlo Bordoni

A highly original reflection on the future society that is now taking shape around us. Carlo Bordoni argues that we are on the threshold of post-society, a condition in which social distancing becomes the norm, real social relations are diminishing in favour of those mediated by technology, existential loneliness is becoming widespread and we find ourselves voluntarily submitting to new forms of surveillance and control in the hope of increasing our security.

SOCIAL THEORY

The Invention of Green Colonialism

Guillaume Blanc

The author investigates the battle for a phantom Africa and the contradictory claims of nations who destroy their own nature while believing that they are protecting the natural world abroad. In so doing, they enact a new type of colonialism: green colonialism.

NOTES

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

4-VOLUME SET

Edited by Stewart Goetz and Charles Taliaferro

Humanities | Philosophy | Philosophy of Religion

An unprecedented multi-volume reference work on philosophy of religion, providing authoritative coverage of all significant concepts, figures, and movements

Unmatched in scope and depth, The Encyclopedia of Philosophy of Religion provides readers with a well-balanced understanding of philosophical thought about the nature of Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, and other religious traditions around the globe. Spanning across four comprehensive volumes and organized alphabetically, this groundbreaking resource contains hundreds of specially commissioned entries covering the key themes, thinkers, works, and ideas in the field.

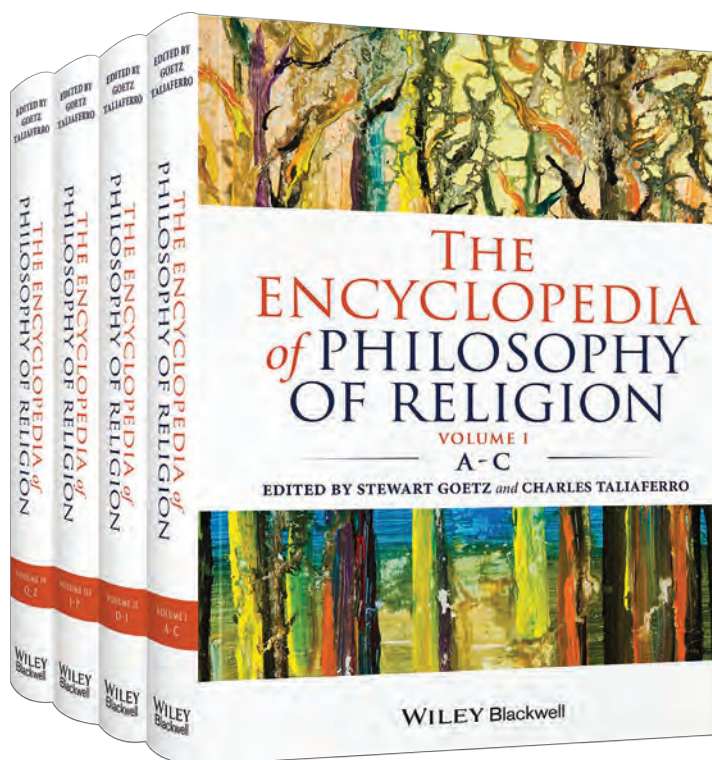

- Provides balanced coverage of Abrahamic religions as well as different traditions from Asia, Africa, and other geographic regions
- Presents more than 450 entries which have been carefully reviewed by an editorial advisory board of world-renowned scholars
- Explores topics in various historical contexts, such as Jewish and Islamic contributions to medieval philosophy
- Discusses recent developments and new approaches to the study of philosophy of religion
- Examines significant theories and concepts including free will, atonement, moral argument, natural law, process theology, evolutionary theory, and theism
- Offers a fully cross-referenced and searchable online edition

The first work of its kind, The Encyclopedia of Philosophy of Religion is an indispensable resource for scholars and advanced students in philosophy, theology, religious studies, and relevant areas of humanities and sciences at both secular universities and theological colleges and seminaries.

ABOUT THE EDITORS-IN-CHIEF

Stewart Goetz is the Ross Frederick Wicks Distinguished Professor in Philosophy and Religion at Ursinus College and visiting scholar at St. Peter's College, Oxford. He has written extensively on the freedom of choice, the nature of the self, and the meaning of life.

Charles Taliaferro holds the Oscar and Gertrude Boe Distinguished Chair and is Professor of Philosophy at St. Olaf College. He is the Editor-in-Chief of Open Theology, and is on the editorial board of Philosophy Compass, Sophia, and Religious Studies Review.
